Better outcomes for families

Sound like something in which your organization believes? Ours does too. That desire for better outcomes for families is the starting point for why we should all be working together to make that happen.

The Milwaukee IDEA Network seeks to bring together and support a core group of Network Partners – Milwaukee community agencies and Milwaukee Public Schools – who have mutual interest in building long-term community capacity for reaching underserved, culturally diverse parents of children with disabilities.

Challenges:

- accessing resources

Solutions:

- collaboration
- creativity
- community connections

Benefits of Collaboration:

- work smarter, not harder
- building partnerships
- tradeable resources and skills
- better outcomes for families
