PARENT CONSENT/PERMISSION FOR INITIAL PLACEMENT
Before the school district can provide special education to your child as described in their IEP, your written consent (permission) is needed. Your consent is voluntary and can be revoked prior to the initial provision of special education. You can also revoke consent in writing for your child’s receipt of special education services after the child is initially provided special education and related services.

I understand the action proposed above and

(please check appropriate box below, sign and date, and return one copy to the school district)

- □ I give my consent for my child __________________________ to receive special education services.
- □ I do not give my consent for my child _______________________ to receive special education services.

{I understand that if I refuse to give my consent for my child to receive special education services the school district is not required to convene an IEP meeting or develop an IEP for my child. I further understand that the district will not be in violation of the requirement, under the federal Individuals with Disabilities Education Act (IDEA) and Sub. V, Chapter 115, Wis. Stats., the state special education law, to make available a free appropriate public education (special education and related services) for my child.}
